Description

Discover this delightful pair of chased and gilded bronze candlesticks, in the Louis XVI style revisited in the 19th century. These exceptional pieces are distinguished by their ornamentation inspired by Antiquity, with a fluted column topped with Ionic capitals. Each candlestick rests on a circular base with an ogee, delicately decorated with acanthus leaves and floral falls. The column is crowned with a richly flowered vase, testifying to meticulous goldsmith work. Characteristics and Restoration: Over time, these candlesticks had lost the shine of their original gilding. Thanks to careful restoration, their gilding has been redone with 24 carat gold, restoring all their splendor. Height: 21 cm Condition: Excellent Bring a touch of timeless elegance to your interior with these magnificent
