Description

Théodore BUCHHOLD (1885-1968)

Gouache 33x45 cm "Trees in bloom" circa 1920

Signed lower right

Born in Strasbourg, Théodore Buchhold was part of the Alsatian School of the early 20th century, and regularly participated in the Salon des Artistes Français in Paris.

This gouache is very representative of his work, made of well-structured, colorful and contrasting landscapes, in a style close to Impressionism.
