Description

Painting in an expressionist vein, on the edge of Art Brut. Without seeking aesthetics, the drawing and the touch go to the essential, like the French Marcel Leprin or the Japanese Yûzô Saeki. The painting represents a rising street, a lamppost and a customer seated at the table of a bistro, a decor evoking the old Montmartre, the emblematic district of Paris. Oil on canvas in very good conditionh that would require cleaning. Illegible signature at the bottom right. Size : 18,1 x 21,7 Inches, sold without frame
