Pair Of Art Nouveau Frames In Repoussé Copper Sheet

260 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Copper

Width : 22,5 cm

Height : 29 cm

Description

In a chimerical spirit, here are dragons facing each other and placed at the bottom in this pair of frames which still offers scrolls running along the sides and the top. They are made using the so-called "repoussé" technique, very fashionable in the Art Nouveau era. They have their protective glasses, to hang.
