Description

Imposing neo-Renaissance credenza in walnut, very richly carved. The decoration of this piece of furniture is composed of chimeras, heads of characters, cut leathers, plant scrolls and architectural motifs of classical inspiration. The two upper shelves are supported by superb consoles in the form of fantastic animals. By the quality of its sculptures and its decorative richness, this piece of furniture designed in the middle of the 19th century, of French or Italian manufacture, is a very beautiful example of neo-Renaissance furniture. Can be dismantled into 3 parts for transport
