Description

Set of six beautiful graphite drawings by the painter Charles-Dominique LAHALLE, known as Oscar, born in Nancy in 1834 and died in Paris in 1909. The drawings we present are a precious testimony to his talent as an artist, both for the liveliness of his line and the spontaneity of the subjects exploited. Military painter who exhibited at the Salon from 1873 to 1876. In very good condition. Private collection. Dimensions: h.25 cm x l.20 cm.
