

Transition Style Marquetry Chest Of Drawers - Stamped "françois Daïdé".

8 000 EUR

Signature : Ebéniste François DAIDE

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Wood marquetry

Length : 140 cm

Height : 91 cm

Depth : 62 cm

Description

COMMODE A RESSAUT :IMPORTANT Transition-style APPARAT COMMODE in precious wood marquetry, richly decorated with chased and gilded bronzes such as corner falls, sabots, apron, draw handles, framing leaf friezes and interlacing friezes. Five panels inlaid with four-leaf clover motifs in tinted lattice and grid patterns. It opens with three drawers in the high waistband and two drawers in the front with no visible crosspiece, decorated as if they were one. The uprights are rounded and extend to cambered feet finished with lion's claws that run up the foot in the form of acanthus leaves. The furniture is topped by an imposing and magnificent marble top. Furniture stamped François DAIDE 19th century. François Daïdé, a cabinetmaker with an established reputation,

Dealer

Galerie L'inversin antiquités

Antiquaire Généraliste

Mobile : 06.23.49.26.84

30 rue Saint-Jean

Montbrison 42600

French know-how in Revel in Haute-Garonne. The Daïdé family has been working with wood since 1768, first as a carpenter, then as a joiner making the famous "gabarrois" sideboards. But it was François Daïdé at the end of the 19th century, followed by René, his son born in 1936, who turned the company towards excellence and the production of prestigious furniture pieces in the 50s and 60s.