

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Rare Set Of 9 Stereoscopic Glass Plates - Indochina & Angkor - Late 19th Century

460 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Glass

Length : 13 cm

Width : 6 cm

Description

A rare and beautiful set of nine positive stereoscopic slides on silver lactate glass, late 19th century, preserved in their original box. Each plate bears a contemporary handwritten caption in ink on the central vertical band, attesting to a consistent and authentic production. The inscriptions are perfectly consistent with the subjects depicted. Specifications Technique: Positive glass plates, silver lactate Size: Approx. 13 × 6 cm Presentation: Original box Period: Late 19th century. Subjects depicted : *Cambodia - Angkor ruins (2 views) *Cochinchina - Cholon, trading quay *Cochinchina - Saigon, rickshaw station *Cochinchina - Saigon, the market *Cochinchina - Saigon, small hamlet *Cochinchina - Cholon, main street of the Malabar fort *Cochinchina - Saigon, plowing a

Dealer

Biarritz Antiques

Antiquaire Généraliste

Mobile : 06.88.06.33.44

adresse postale 7 avenue Mac Croskey et 284 rue des croisades 34280 La Grande Motte

Biarritz 64200

rice paddyTonkin - The Clear RiverA collection of great historical, ethnographic, and documentary interest, illustrating urban and rural life in French Indochina as well as the ruins of Angkor before the major restoration campaigns of the 20th century.ConditionVery good overall conditionSharp, well-contrasted, and very legible imagesNo gaps, chips, or cracks. A few fine scratches from use, consistent with the age of these plates, do not affect image clarityInterestSought after by:collectors of antique and stereoscopic photographyenthusiasts of colonial Indochinainstitutions, museums, or researchersiconography of Angkor and Southeast Asia.