Description

Beautiful French sculpture from the second half of the 19th century capturing the essence of Pierrot, the iconic character of French theater. This artwork, created in the second half of the 19th century, depicts Pierrot with a melancholic face and hands clasped in a gesture of adoration towards his beloved, the moon. The sculpture is placed on a majestic pedestal that enhances its importance and presence, while next to Pierrot is his faithful mandolin, ready for romantic serenades under the silvered cloak of the night.
