Description

Very rare series of 8 name tags or menu holders from the Art Nouveau period and style in solid silver. They are decorated with a magnificent iris motif, the flower par excellence of the Art Nouveau style. Each is hallmarked with the hallmark of guarantee of solid silver of the first title (950‰) "with the head of Minerva" and a master goldsmith's hallmark where the capital letters J and G appear. Dated around 1890-1910.
