Description

This diabolo-shaped vase, model "MONNA", is signed by François-Théodore Legras. It has a background in "pink" and "ruby" tones with an acid-etched decoration of vine branches. This work illustrates the exceptional know-how of early 20th century glass art, characteristic of the creations of Verrerie d'Art Legras. The artist's signature, visible on the surface, testifies to its authenticity and artistic value.
