Description

Beautiful and rare iridescent ceramic vase decorated with bignonias by Ernest Bussière. Original piece, typical 1900 in the art nouveau movement with this iridescent vase in warm red, copper and green colors. Lively shape with a hemmed neck inside and dented. Bignonia flowers decorate the edge of the vase in red iridescence. Very beautiful enamel coating, with an iridescent snakeskin effect interior. A very beautiful work by Ernest Bussière, worked in the Keller and Guerin workshops in Lunéville. Not to be recalled the works of the Massier brothers in Vallauris. Diameter of 19 cm and 11.5 cm in height, weight: 1.44 kg Perfect condition, signed "KG Lunéville", embellished with the "B" for Bussière. Rare and very high quality ceramic.
