Chandelier/suspension In Wrought Iron And Blown Glass Paste, Attributed To Muller Frères Lunéville

1 800 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Wrought iron

Diameter : 56

Height : 70

Description

Chandelier / Pendant Light in Wrought Iron and Blown Glass Paste, Attributed to Muller Frères Lunéville, Art Nouveau / Art Deco, France, circa 1900-1920.

We are pleased to offer you a high-quality chandelier/pendant light, representing a masterpiece of French Art Nouveau and Art Deco, attributed to the renowned Muller Frères Lunéville.

This model, combining elegance and refinement, reflects the excellence of craftsmanship from that era, with its noble materials and characteristic design.

This rare item, dating from the years 1900-1920,

Dealer

Le Voyageur Antiquités
Antiquités du XIXe et du XXe.
Mobile : 0652323428

L'Etang
Vézelay 89450

is a true testament to the savoir-faire of a time when artisanal craftsmanship reached its peak. It embodies both grace and elegance, creating a perfect balance between ornamentation and functionality. Typical of the decorative arts of the early 20th century.

Description
Wrought Iron Frame:
The structure of this chandelier is made from wrought iron, with a carefully finished three-branch design that supports the diffuser.
Decorative Shields and Oak Leaves: The frame is beautifully adorned with motifs of mask-shaped shields surrounded by oak leaves and acorns, symbolizing nature and strength.

Orange Glass Bowl: The bowl of the chandelier is made of orange-colored glass, adding warmth and softness to the overall piece.
Blown Glass Paste Diffuser / Bowl: The diffuser is a stunning blown glass paste bowl in an orange hue, providing a magnificent light effect when illuminated, creating a warm and intimate ambiance. This soft, warm shade creates a cozy and welcoming atmosphere, perfect for a dining room or living room.

Provenance and Characteristics
Attributed to Muller Frères Lunéville: Although unsigned, this chandelier displays all the features of the Muller Frères' productions in Lunéville, famous for their glass paste creations and their lights sculpted in wrought iron.

Period: Art Nouveau / Art Deco, France, circa 1900-1920, a period of great creativity for decorative arts in France.

Condition:
Restoration: The piece has been carefully restored by our workshop.
The metal has been cleaned and patinated to reveal its original beauty, and the electrical installation has been completely redone to ensure safe modern use.

Excellent Condition: This chandelier is in exceptional condition, retaining all its original splendor and brilliance.

Dimensions
Height: 70 cm
Depth: 56 cm
Width: 56 cm

A chandelier that will enhance your interior, whether in a living room, bedroom, dining room, or entry hall, adding a touch of elegance and refinement typical of the Art Nouveau and Art Deco periods.

Don't miss out on this rare item!

We are specializing in premium antiques. For additional information or a delivery quote, our team is at your service.