Description

Pair of Asian Flat Columns, Vietnam, circa 1900

This superb pair of carved wooden columns, of Vietnamese origin, dates from the early 20th century. Each piece illustrates an exceptional work of relief sculpture, featuring a rich traditional Asian iconography. The carved motifs include: o Small monkeys: symbols of mischief and intelligence, bringing a lively and playful note. o Deer and does: associated with peace, longevity and prosperity, these majestic animals add a noble and elegant dimension. o Birds: emblems of freedom and beauty, represented in graceful postures among the branches. o Floral decoration: lush vegetation composed of flowers and foliage, which harmoniously envelops the animals and brings a feeling of serenity. o Chinese letters: these inscriptions enrich the
