*The cutting of round brilliant diamonds in half-cut appeared in the 1930s. This perfectly structured diamond cut is characterized by a larger table and a lower crown constituting a transition between the modern cut and the old cut used until then.

Total weight of 48.2 grams (24.7 grams and 23.5 grams per bracelet) in 14K gold without visible hallmarks but fully tested by a professional jeweler

- Slightly oval wrist circumference of 16 cm

- Width of 12 mm tapering to 10.5 mm on the clasp side

Very good antique condition: Without accident or previous restoration with only very limited light traces of use
