Description

Important pinnacles in limestone chapel crowning stone in Gothic style from the 19th century. They topped the walls of a castle chapel and served as a "base" at the start of the roof. They are 6 identical pieces. Composed of three elements cut on the 4 faces for 5 pieces and one cut on 3 faces, they are all crowned with a magnificent bouquet of 4 fleur-de-lis leaning on a 4-sided obelisk. These are exceptional pieces that can be sold separately or in batches at a special price. Their large size makes them magnificent garden ornaments for example. Or serve as a facade crowning. Shipping possible worldwide. There are 6 of them.
