Description

A rare small 17th century cabinet in walnut opening with two doors decorated with discs. Originally from Touraine, it offers six small drawers inside above a wide one in the lower part. It rests on two turned feet at the front and two straight feet at the back which have been restored. With a superb top, beautiful proportions as very often at that time, quality wood, original hinges and lock. A very small piece of heavy wooden furniture weighing 38 kilos...
