Description

Garnet Tanzanite Drop Earrings in 18K Yellow Gold These stunning 18k yellow gold drop earrings combine timeless sophistication with modern sparkle. Measuring 4cm in length, they feature a harmonious composition of gemstones, offering a rich and captivating play of color. - Main Stones: Two oval-cut garnets, set in prongs, catch the light with their deep, fiery red hues, symbolizing passion and elegance. - Delicate Accents: Beneath each garnet, a round brilliant-cut tanzanite adds a subtle, luminous contrast with its purple hue, enhancing the depth of the garnets. - Refined Details: Small brilliant-cut diamonds add a touch of understated sparkle, enhancing the elegance of the design. The delicate drop-shaped pendants are crafted from coral (or a similar, vibrant and warm stone), emphasizing the graceful elongation of the earrings. The elongated, slightly rounded shape of the drops perfectly balances the sparkle of the gemstones. - Design: Prong settings ensure secure placement while beautifully showcasing the stones, and push-button closures ensure a comfortable and secure fit. - Dimensions: At 4cm in total length, they are the perfect size for a sophisticated visual effect without being too imposing. These earrings embody the perfect blend of classic and contemporary style, making them ideal for elevating an evening outfit or adding a touch of elegance to everyday wear.
