Description

Very beautiful model of neo-Greek vase from this Hill Pottery factory, rare due to its tulip shape with a flared upper edge marked with a projection (a shape taken up by Hermès for its vases with Persian decoration) and its immaculate white background on which the polychrome decoration of gladiators stands out sumptuously.* England Staffordshire, Burslem, Circa 1861-1864). Height: 14.2 cm / Weight: 320 g This vase is truly splendid! It is in excellent condition, as is the gilding. If you have any questions, we are at your disposal. _____
