Description

Important wrought iron planter from Maison Blot-Galland in Tournus around 1900. It rests on a stable support with four legs joined in a circle. The planter part is round (74 cm in diameter) decorated with braided iron wire. The zinc interior is in good condition. It will find its place both indoors and outdoors. Its delicate style recalls the charm of winter gardens from the end of the 19th century. Perfect for creating a floral arrangement. Dimensions: 105 cm high - 74 cm in diameter
