Description

Round silver photo locket medallion with translucent midnight blue enamel decoration on a guilloche background, a silver fleurette circled with white enamel in its center and a border of half-fleurettes and silver leaves on the front.

The medallion is held in place by a silver chain repeating the central fleurette motif and decorated with three elongated enameled silver pearls.

It opens from the top by separating the two parts of its hinged case, revealing the photo holder compartment, complete with its protective glass.

Austrian work, c. 1910.

"935" title mark and maker's mark on the bail of the medallion and the spring ring clasp.

16 gr gross weight.

Very good condition - tiny enamel losses on the pearls, see photos.
