Description

Give your interior a burst of timeless elegance with this rare and refined modernist Art Deco desk lamp, made in France around 1930. A true masterpiece of Art Deco, this piece is distinguished by its refined silhouette and noble materials, perfectly embodying the Streamline Moderne style of the time. The base of the lamp is made of chrome / nickel-plated metal, offering a shiny and resistant finish, which sublimates the whole with a touch of modernity. The lampshade, a sublime shell or conch in molded pressed glass, is enhanced with fine silver threads, creating a delicate play of light that brings a soft and elegant atmosphere to any room. This lamp has been carefully preserved, both in terms of the structure and the lampshade. The lighting was refurbished some time ago with completely redone electricity,
