Description

"Ecole de Puteaux": Baron Pierre Courtens (1921-2004) Born in Brussels in 1921, Baron Pierre Courtens came from a line of famous painters in his country. In 1942, he entered the Academy of Fine Arts in St. Josse-ten-Noode, with the painter Jacques Naes as his teacher. He also studied monumental decorative art with Anto Carte, and took courses at the Académie Supérieure du Royaume de Belgique in Antwerp in etchings and woodcuts. In 1947, Pierre Courtens settled in Montparnasse and frequented the artists Atlan, Dominguez, Zadkine, Mane Kate. He frequently rubbed shoulders with Jacques Villon in Puteaux at Camille Renault's and was one of the painters of the Ecole de Puteaux. (...) Until 1972, numerous private exhibitions were held at Camille Renault's gallery
