Yannick LE BLOAS (born in 1972) Born in Brittany in 1972, rocked by a Celtic culture full of poetry and fantasy, from a very young age he showed a very keen interest in the plastic arts. Very quickly he touched all the techniques, all the supports that fell into his hands, enrolled in the fine arts of Lorient where he trained for several years. Creation, through all kinds of precious and delicate materials, is his favorite field .. Yannick Le Bloas invites us on a journey through his paintings, his sculptures and his millefiori. Inspired by different influences and cultures, his universe oscillates between the ethnic and the dreamlike. Noticed at the Viaduc des arts, at the Carrousel du Louvres... Winner of the "Prix du public des Arcades" (St Germain des Prés). His art seduces with its originality, finesse and precision. He created a collection of paintings on the themes "Microcosm - Macrocosm", "Trees and Senses" in 2005. Materials such as Gold Leaf, Bronze Dust, Sand from around the world... Multiple ingredients of which he has the secret... give his creations a transparency and a unique atmosphere. Exhibited in various galleries and boutiques in Paris and abroad, he disseminates his sculptures dressed in millefiori, creates a collection of jewelry on the theme of Comets, offers luminescent eggs, "envelopes" of women with bellies sparkling with luminous pearls, "celestial bodies" as he likes to say... Yannick Le Bloas is to this day an accomplished artist, in continual spiritual research listening to his inner inspirations and the world around him...
