Description

1930s metal sculpture in art deco style representing a reclining panther. Very pretty unusual subject embellished with a beautiful original patina and an unusual attitude playing on contrasts with a very pretty base in light onyx and black marble. Typical art deco style work of art that can give a certain decorative effect or add a beautiful piece to an animal collection. Very good original condition and no restoration. Possibility of sending in France and abroad by secure and insured package with order tracking. Invoice and certificate provided.
