Description

Bizen long neck bottle, beautiful ceramic by Ogawa Mayumi.

Circa 1975 Entitled "Dawn" this beautiful object is sold with its original paulownia wood box.

Fired in the "Shoyo Bizen Ware" Kiln (?? - Japan - Showa Period (1926-1989))

Bizen ware is known for its earthy, unglazed beauty and its organic, rough, rough shapes.

Although not particularly old, circa 1975, this piece exudes a rustic charm evoking the history of Japanese pottery.

From their studio in Ushimado, the artist couple (Ogawa Chinichirou & Ogawa Mayumi) begin each day by paying homage to the spiritual mountain, Kumayama, which seems to imbue their work with a mysterious power.

A captivating example of traditional Japanese
