

Anthropomorphic Terracotta Statuette From Mexico - Pre-columbian Art 14th-15th Centuries

200 EUR

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Terracotta

Height : 10 cm

Description

Anthropomorphic terracotta statuette, from the pre-Columbian period (1), in perfect condition. Representation of a character in "clothing", a mask seems to cover his face, his legs are punctuated. Residual earth inside.

Origin: Mexico, 14th-15th centuries.

Height: 10 cm.

Original piece, guaranteed period. Comes from a French collection of pre-Columbian objects gathered by a collector during the second half of the 20th century, sold at the very end of the 1990s.

1 - The term "pre-Columbian" (or "pre-Hispanic") is associated with the period preceding the arrival of Christopher Columbus in 1492 in this region of the globe, when he thought he would reach the

Dealer

Vita brevis - Curiosités et Antiquités

Cabinet of oddities / Antiques

Mobile : 0781225034

Fougères 35300

Indies from the west. This is the art of the indigenous populations of South and Central America.