Description

Elegant pair of 7-light gilded bronze candelabras, crafted in the Louis XVI style during the Napoleon III period. These impressive pieces stand 61 cm tall and 35 cm wide, with sturdy bases measuring 27 x 16 cm, and weigh 7 kg each. Their refined craftsmanship and harmonious proportions make them ideal for a mantel, sideboard, or a sophisticated interior. The gilding is luminous, highlighting the exquisite bronze detailing. Two replacement bobèches are present but do not detract from the overall elegance of the pair. Shipping: Carefully packed in two separate parcels to ensure safe delivery. A perfect addition for collectors of 19th-century French decorative arts or for anyone looking to add a touch of classical refinement to their home.
