Description

Large covered vase forming a potiche, in Limoges porcelain, oven blue and double gold inlay on the lid and shoulder. The belly of our vase is decorated with a beautiful bouquet composed of flowers and enclosed in a reserve delimited by a gold border. The back of the belly is decorated with a charming decoration of ears of wheat and various. The whole is entirely decorated by hand. The two handles are enhanced with fine gold and embellished with small pearls made in relief. This splendid vase rests on a shower foot decorated with several circular threads in fine gold. It bears at the bottom of the decoration the Signature Simone and the inscription "tout fait main" for the decorator Simone Clavaud, of whom we have a second almost identical vase for sale in our gallery.
