These four nesting tables with tops decorated with large multi-colored chrysanthemums on a gold background, rest on finely turned wooden legs. The lacquers are very neat, with a beautiful polychromy that stands out on the gold backgrounds; paintings presented as tables.

From the end of the 19th or the beginning of the 20th century, they are very stable and in good used condition, very fresh colors, top tray darker over the years, some traces of wear and glass circles without affecting the general aesthetics.

Ideal side tables, once closed, they can be placed in the middle of a room, as a console against a wall or at the end of a sofa.
