

Bust Of Diane De Houdon In Biscuit Porcelain - Neoclassical Decor

1 200 EUR

Signature : D'après Houdon

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Biscuit

Description

Large biscuit porcelain bust representing Diana the Huntress after Jean-Antoine Houdon (1741-1828). The original model was created in 1777, then Houdon made bronze casts of her statue in 1782 and 1790. Diana, goddess of the hunt and the night, is always represented with a crescent moon on her head. Our biscuit is a 19th century cast, signed by Bracony in Paris. Ideal to complete a decoration on a desk, a chest of drawers. In excellent condition. Width: 30cm
Height: 52cm

Dealer

GSLR Antiques

French Antiques - 18th to 20th century.

Mobile : +33658910924

4 rue Vicat

Grenoble 38 000