Description

This round table combines elegance and quality materials. The marble top immediately catches the eye and stands out with its beautiful mixed shades of gray, white and brown, with natural veins that create a unique effect. The molded edges add a touch of finesse to the design. The central base provides stability and contrast with the marble. It is composed of a column resting on a solid square base, with small rounded feet that ensure good balance. The wood, in flamed mahogany veneer and deep brown mahogany, highlights its natural patterns and reinforces the refined side of the table. Thanks to its round shape, this table is ideal for creating a friendly atmosphere. Its elegance will fit perfectly into an entrance hall, living room or classic dining room, adding charm and character to the room.
