Description

19th Century German Porcelain - Figurative Trinket Dish with a Goblin - Volkstedt (Thuringia).. Gilt and Enamel Highlights. Antique German porcelain trinket dish depicting a goblin, a fine piece from the Volkstedt (Thuringia) manufactory, 19th century. A decorative collector's item, signed on the base. Exquisitely crafted, typical of German Meissen-inspired porcelain. Hard-paste porcelain, meticulously decorated with gilt and enamel highlights. Underglaze blue fork mark on the base. Good overall condition. Note: One of the goblin's feet and his left leg have undergone an imperceptible, old restoration. The photos are an integral part of the description and should be examined carefully to avoid any misunderstandings. 6.5 cm high 11 cm wide 12 cm
