

Polychrome Wooden Sculpture - Late 18th Century Representation Of Krishna Playing The Flute

1 800 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Painted wood

Height : 57

Description

Polychrome wood sculpture - Late 18th century
Representation of Krishna playing the flute
Superb old polychrome wood sculpture representing Krishna, a central deity in Hinduism. This delicate work of art, made at the end of the 18th century, demonstrates a work of great finesse and exceptional traditional know-how.
Characteristics: Material: Polychrome wood
Period: Late 18th century Height: 57 cm
Condition: Very beautiful original patina, testifying to its antiquity. Some natural traces of wear, adding to the charm and authenticity of the piece. Details: Rich and colorful ornaments with subtle gilding, representing Krishna in an elegant posture, playing the flute. This sculpture will appeal to lovers of Asian art, antiques or collectors passionate about Hindu sacred art. A

Dealer

16Bis Antique

Généraliste

Mobile : 0607957007

175 avenue Gambetta

Saintes 17100

unique piece that will bring a touch of spirituality, elegance and history to your interior. Delivery: Secure packaging and possibility of international shipping. For any request for additional information or detailed photos, do not hesitate to contact me.