Description

Magnificent mahogany serving trolley, flamed, Sheraton. Work from the end of the 18th century. Curved serving trolley, with slightly curved top and sides. Thus offering a graceful silhouette to this piece of furniture. It is topped with a solid mahogany top. Opening on the front with five drawers with slightly curved faces, of beautiful dimensions. All upholstered in green felt fabric and storage compartments, used to store your cutlery and other utensils .... Drawers with pull rings and lock, in gilded brass, finely chiseled. A key is present and works for all drawers. Rests on a sheathed base, typical of the Sheraton style, slightly curved inwards to follow the general line of the furniture. This very beautiful serving trolley can be used both as a functional piece of furniture, and as a decorative piece in a classic or
