Description

This magnificent pair of 19th century tazzas exudes classic elegance and refined craftsmanship, executed in the neoclassical style. Inspired by the art and architecture of antiquity, these decorative objects are distinguished by their harmony and finesse. The tazzas are made of veined red marble and finely detailed patinated bronze. The bronze cups feature elegant handles and decorative edges, resting on a central column decorated with classical motifs. These columns are set on a square base of red marble.
