Description

Rare small robot desk lamp by Satco circa 1960/1970. This is indeed an adorable little desk lamp in the shape of a small robot published by Satco in the 1960s/1970s. This one is in its blue lacquered version, it exists in red and aluminum, it is entirely original, because often it is missing the small spring antenna on the head, it finally works perfectly. The mouth is articulated and you can more or less open it in order to diffuse more or less light. In very good condition therefore, slightly dirty but very good original condition. Height fully closed: 24cm and 27cm fully open. Lamp guaranteed authentic and period
