Description

Very beautiful miniature painting in tondo, 18th century oil on cardboard (papier-mâché I think).

Diameter of frame: 7.4 cm / Diameter when viewed: 5 cm

Very beautiful scene depicting five putti or Lovers playing, by its quality of execution and the subject matter this painting is certainly the work of François Boucher or Jean-Honoré Fragonard, or the entourage of the latter.

The frame and painting have just been cleaned, and a light reversible varnish has been applied to protect the work (you can see the condition of the painting before cleaning, as well as its support (see photos).

It should be noted that this painting is much more beautiful in reality, the photos do not reproduce the quality, sharpness and precision of detail of
