Description

This elegant Empire-style dining table, dating from the 20th century, embodies a perfect marriage of functionality and aesthetics. Made of maple wood, it stands out for its neat structure and refined finishes. The table has a sturdy central base, providing solid support while adding a touch of sophistication. The oars of the table are adorned with four carved wooden decorations, representing classic motifs, highlighting the craftsmanship of the time. These ornaments are skillfully gilded, bringing a touch of luxury to the whole. In addition, this table is extendable, thus allowing you to comfortably accommodate your guests during receptions or family dinners. It also comes with two additional spacers, which integrate harmoniously thanks to the same maple finish, thus providing aesthetic coherence. This
