Description

With a conical chalice on a round base and without a stem, these glasses are a pure Art Deco product. They also proudly display a certain resemblance to the Rex model from the house of Baccarat without having either the finesse or the brilliance. We count: - 5 Champagne glasses of 8.5 cm in height and 9.5 cm in diameter at the rim - 4 large water glasses, now rather used for red wine, of 11 cm in height and 8.9 cm at the rim - 8 white wine glasses of 8.6 cm in height and 6.7 cm in diameter at the rim - 9 glasses for cooked wine or alcohol of 7.8 cm in height and 6 cm in diameter at the rim It should be noted in passing that the smallest can easily be diverted into magnificent verrines to accompany your aperitif! The dimensions announced are not rigorous. Since the manufacturing is not industrial, a difference of one millimeter can sometimes be noted. Two photos show for the same size of glass a significant difference in thickness of the base and a difference in diameter at the rim. All the glasses are in perfect condition without cracks, chips or scratches and have a beautiful shine. They clink pleasantly. Considering the number offered, this is an ideal service for four guests.
