Description

Large centerpiece from the Restoration period in gilded and chiseled bronze resting on four feet decorated with volutes and stylized petals. The oval base covered with a mirror is hemmed with an openwork frieze, finely chiseled with leafy scrolls decorated with flowers, seeds and ears of wheat, surmounting a crown of laurels. Very beautiful quality of the chiseling and great finesse in the treatment of the details. Some rust spots on the mirror. Restoration period, circa 1820.LEARN MORE
