Description

The ceramics of the Atelier "Hugria" are unusual, this one comes from my personal collection.

Hugria is an art ceramics workshop in Belgium, founded by Hugo De Putter and Victoria "Ria" Blansaer.

Here is a creation from the 1950s-1960s.

Stamp of the brand molded under the base. An elegant and refined piece. 4 feet if used as a bowl, this piece can also be presented as a painting, a fixing allows it to be hung on the wall.

Dimensions: 55 cm long x 16 cm wide x 5 cm high. In very good condition.
