

Imperial Russian Deep Plate From The Farmers' Palace In St. Petersburg

690 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Porcelain

Diameter : 23,5 cm

Description

A soup plate decorated with the monogram of Emperor Alexander II. This plate comes from the Farmers' Palace in St. Petersburg and is part of the 1908 restocking of the Emperor's personal service during the reign of Nicholas II. Painted porcelain with a gold-painted rim. Mark on the back: HII (N in Cyrillic for Nicholas II) with a crown, in green. Imperial Porcelain Manufactory of St. Petersburg, 1908.

Dealer

Ellie & Co Gallery

Jewelry, goldsmithing, tableware

Tel : +33 6 07 24 86 62

Paris 75015