

17th Century Painting, Bucolic Landscape With Goats

4 100 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 107

Height : 90

Depth : 6

Description

COD 0956 Antique Italian painting from the second half of the 17th century. Oil on canvas artwork depicting a splendid bucolic landscape with animals and a shepherd, of great pictorial quality. In the foreground we find magnificently painted goats that seem to observe us, thus breaking the fourth wall. In the distance we see a shepherd on horseback with his dog at his side, both seem to move away towards the sunset and give depth to the composition. Painting attributable to the German painter Philipp Peter Roos known as Rosa da Tivoli (1657-1706), lacking authentication. A pupil of Giacinto Brandi, he worked mainly in Italy and bought a house in Tivoli, which earned him the famous nickname. He raised many animals and then painted them in the Roman countryside, with

Dealer

Parino Mercato Antiquario

www.parino.it, shop online antiques and decorative

Tel : +393395094992

Mobile : +393395094992

Strada Statale 28 Reg. Olle

Vicoforte (CN) 12080

intense brush strokes and a strong contrast between light and shadow. 20th century frame in carved and painted wood, with some signs of aging. Painting already restored with relining, replacement of the frame and repainting of the color in small spots. Overall in good condition. Interior size H 75 x W 93 cm. As each of our items will be accompanied by a certificate of authenticity and guarantee as well as photographic documentation. Visit our website www.parino.it Free delivery in Europe.