Description

She is depicted seated, in a slightly inclined position. She wears an embroidered side dress, low-cut at the neckline and decorated with a lace braid. A gathered silk scarf is placed on her right shoulder. Her gray curls, which contrast with her youthful appearance, indicate an advanced age. The painting has its original frame. The painting was purchased by the Bruni Tedesco collection from the famous Turin art dealer Pietro Accorsi in the 1970s. Attention! The painting is exhaustively described by Mrs. Dr. Arabella Cifani and attributed to the work of Pierre Gobert. Mrs. Cifani is known for her in-depth knowledge of Pierre Gobert and pictorial art in the Duchy of Savoy. A copy of the expertise can be sent at any time. Additional HD photos are available
