Description

Beautiful high-backed chair in the Louis XIII - Louis XIV style in solid walnut. It rests on two turned baluster front legs and two square-section rear legs with bent corners. These four legs are connected to each other by an H-shaped leg turned into a baluster, as is the high front crosspiece. The back is flat and very high. The seat is in very good condition and remains very comfortable, having been redone a few years ago. The fabric is also in good house condition. Our seat is decorated with a beautiful finish with golden pyramidal nails; shipping costs please contact us.
