Description

This magnificent 18th century bed is a stunning example of period craftsmanship and artistry. The bed is composed of intricately carved and gilded wood, demonstrating expert woodworking techniques characteristic of the period. Its headboard features a beautifully executed oil painting depicting the biblical scene of Jacob's dream, rendered with delicate brushstrokes and exquisite detail. Measuring 200cm in length, 140cm in width and 105cm in height, this bed is both an artistic centrepiece and a functional piece of furniture. Although no artist's signature is visible, the quality of the painting and gilding indicates that it was made by highly skilled craftsmen. This piece
