

Antique Poissardes Earrings Heart And Flower Enamel On Gold

2 700 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Gold

Description

Earrings sleepers called "Poissardes" in 18Kt pink and yellow gold (hallmark: rooster's head turned to the left, beak open), decorated in their center with a heart surrounded by navy blue enamel, containing a pansy flower enameled navy blue and green, in a finely chiseled gold surround. Break system, passage of the loops through the back.

French work from the end of the 18th century / beginning of the 19th century (1798 to 1809). Unidentified master's mark.

Gross weight: 3.73 g

Total height: 4.10 cm

Width: 1.20 cm

Dealer

GALERIE PENELOPE

Bijoux anciens

Mobile : 07 56 99 58 05

Paris 75017

Condition: slight micro scratches and slight oxidation on the gold parts, and slight losses on the enamel, see photos.