Description

Important curved wardrobe from the Regency period in walnut. It opens with two large doors with two curved and curved panels richly decorated with sculptures in high relief decorated with numerous foliage, scrolls, fleur-de-lis and a bunch of grapes. The uprights are flowered, the sides molded, the panels stand out; finally to top it all off, the cornice with a gendarme's hat with a recess in the corners is decorated with a scallop shell at the top. A fairly rare piece of furniture, very natural, efficient and pleasant to live in...
