Description

Art Deco Bronze Sculpture with polychrome patina "nature Et Faune" by the emeritus sculptor Lucien Charles Edouard Alliot (1877-1956). This sculpture symbolizes the metaphor of nourishing Nature through an elegant young girl leaning over to feed a kneeling faun with abundant bunches of grapes. The two subjects, with brown and gold patinas, rest on a double base in bronze and green marble. Very beautiful quality of chiseling and magnificent patina. Signature on the terrace "L. ALLIOT" with the addition of the words "BRONZE"

Very good original condition

Length: 21,3"

Height: 9,8"

Depth: 6,3"
